

Krasnoyarsk 2019 Winter Universiade - The Gateway to the Olympics -

International University Sports Federation

Winter Universiade Krasnoyarsk 2019

Multisport Games: Long term planning & decisions

29th Winter Universiade

Mascot Laika play bandy

Yenisei Stadium

All matches and training; Capacity 5000 seats

Overview

- The Winter Universiade (WU) currently includes 8 compulsory sports and up to 3 optional sports chosen by the host country. Bandy - optional sport for men and woman in Krasnoyarsk 2019
- Compulsory and optional sport = equal rights in Universiade
- Approximately 3050 athletes in 11 sports from 50 countries (more athletes than winter Olympics)
- TV producer Match TV, Russia. Transmission Match TV and Eurosport (56 countries)
- Opening Ceremony Saturday, March 2 (“Mandatory”)
Closing Ceremony Tuesday, March 12

Bandy: Competition Schedule

- Bandy competition from March 1-10, 2019
- Training daily in morning from Wednesday, February 27
- All bandy matches and training in new Yenisei Stadium under construction (indoor – 5000 seats)
- Match schedule with 6 men team and 4 woman team accepted by FISU and local Organizing Committee in Krasnoyarsk October 16, 2017
- Match Schedule implemented in FISU Technical Regulations and FISU CTI Inspection Visit Report November 16, 2017
- Ranking participating teams from WCS bandy men and woman 2018 accepted by FISU

Key Information

- Arrival bandy teams at the latest February 27
- Opening Ceremony Saturday, March 2 (“Mandatory”)
- Closing Ceremony Tuesday, March 12
- Departure woman teams at the earliest Saturday March 9 (4 teams) and men (6 teams) at the earliest Monday, March 11
- Hospitality for all participants in Universiade village
Supervisors/referees at separate hotel
- Every team/participant represents National University Sports Federation (not National Bandy Federation or FIB)
- Participation based on formal cooperation between National University Sports Federation and National Bandy Federation.

Teams and Age Eligibility

- Basic premise: Signed contract with FIB and FISU
- Team Participation based on formal cooperation between National University Sports Federation and National Bandy Federation
- Basically fully time/part time students at university level with approved student license or graduated 2019
- Age between 18-25 years old (in 2019 born between 01.01.1994 – 31.12.2001)
- Size of troop officially decided by FISU October 16, 2017 Bandy 16 players and 4 leaders per team

FIB & FISU Financial Commitments

- FIB supports local organization with 19 ITO Officials:
- International Technical Officials (ITOs)
 - Referees: 9 men, 6 woman
 - Supervisors: 4
 - (+Technical Delegates (TDs): 2)
- ITOs nominated to FISU at the latest 4 months before the event (mid October 2018)
- FIB pay travel for 19 ITOs (15 referees, 4 supervisors)
 - Diem Euro 50/day
 - Local organizer pay for hospitality and transportation
- FISU pay travel, hospitality and diem for FISU TD and FIB TD

- Acid test of our resolve for the Olympics - Commitment needed

